
RADCLIFFE CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO

JUNE EVENTS 2011

Culinary Adventures: San Francisco: Thursday, June 9, 11:30 a.m. at Angkor Borei, 3471 Mission Street (between Kingston and Cortland). I've hesitated to bring you all out as far as the Bernal Heights stretch of Mission, but it's becoming the coming neighborhood, especially for good ethnic food. So let's explore. We'll start out with a known quantity, the Cambodian Angkor Borei. Lots of people think Cambodian is a big step up from Thai and this is an excellent place to test the proposition! RSVP to Pat Bourne, 415-474-0212 or patriciabourne@post.harvard.edu.

Book Group: Sunday, June 12, at 3 p.m., at the home of Penelope Starr, 60 Olive Avenue, San Anselmo, CA 94960. RSVP to Penelope at 415-456-5061 or gr8tpcs@gmail.com. The book for June is WHEN EVERYTHING CHANGED: The Amazing Journey of American Women from 1960 to the Present by Gail Collins. The book for July is WOLF HALL by Hilary Mantel.

Writing Group: The Writing Group will not meet during the summer months..

Film Group: The Film Group will not meet in June. The next meeting is set for Sunday, July 9 at the home of Mary Claugus. The film will be CHERI.

Museum Dates: Private Docent Tours. Guests welcome! Please arrive 10 minutes early. Join us afterwards for coffee or lunch at the museum café or other local place. RSVP to Alison Boeckmann at 415-661-5849 (home), 415-317-2150 (cell) or alison_boeckmann@post.harvard.edu. Send check (made out to Alison Boeckmann) to Alison Boeckmann, 1536 Willard Street, SF 94117.

Sunday, June 26, 10 a.m., at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art: "The Steins Collect Matisse, Picasso, and the Parisian Avant-garde." American expatriates in bohemian Paris, the Steins — writer Gertrude, her brothers Leo and Michael, and Michael's wife, Sarah — were among the first to recognize the talents of avant-garde painters like Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso. Through their friendship and patronage, they helped spark an artistic revolution. This landmark exhibition draws on collections from around the world to reunite the Steins' unparalleled collections of modern art. Cost: $10 for members of SFMOMA and guests. $31 for others.

Sunday, July 24, 11 a.m., at the Contemporary Jewish Museum: "Seeing Gertrude Stein: Five Stories" Drawing upon a wealth of rarely seen artistic and archival materials, this exhibit illuminates Stein's life and pivotal role in art during the 20th century. Cost: $10 for members of the CJM and guests; $17 for others.

SPECIAL NOTE: the de Young is showing "Picasso: Masterpieces from the Musée National Picasso, Paris" June 11, 2011 - October 9, 2011. We will not do a private docent tour because the price ($650) is too high. Since the self-guided tour of Balenciaga in May was successful, we can try a similar tour of Picasso. However, the tickets for Picasso will be timed, which will make it difficult to coordinate a day and time.

If you have a change of address, please contact Janet Taber-Coppola at 415-885-4449 or janet@tabercoppola.com.
