

JUNE EVENTS 2013

Culinary Adventures: San Francisco: Thursday, June 13, 11:30 a.m. Salumeria, 3000 20th Street (at Florida) I've been remiss. A trend has been making its way around San Francisco – the improbable sandwich -- and I have failed to keep you on the cutting edge. Salumeria will get us on track. (Plenty of salads and accommodations for those who eschew bread.) This grocery/deli uses Central Kitchen's indoor/outdoor seating (you know, Flour and Water's sister spot). And for you urbanists, this neighborhood is just fascinating; we're talking texture in motion. RSVP to Pat Bourne, 474-0212 or patriciabourne@post.harvard.edu. The 27 runs on Bryant (one block from Florida), the 12 on Folsom, the 76 and the 6 on Potrero and the 48 on 24th. If you plan to drive, call me!

Book Group: Sunday, June 9 at 3:00 p.m. at the home of Christie Coffin, 1622 Spruce Street, Berkeley. For directions and to RSVP contact Christie at 510-548-2146 or christieandsteve@yahoo.com. The book for June is BINOCULAR VISION by Edith Pearlman (Radcliffe graduate). "Her writing is intelligent, perceptive, funny and quite beautiful . . . Pearlman's view of the world is large and compassionate, delivered through small, beautifully precise moments . . . These quiet, elegant stories add something significant to the literary landscape . . . The volume is an excellent introduction to a writer who should not need one. Maybe from now on everyone will know of Edith Pearlman." --Roxana Robinson, New York Times Book Review. The book for July is PERE GORIOT by Honore de Balzac. This fine example of the French realist novel contrasts the social progress of an impoverished but ambitious aristocrat with the tale of a father, whose obsessive love for his daughters leads to his personal and financial ruin.

Film Group: Film Group: Saturday June 22 at 2 p.m. at the San Francisco Towers home of Sue Kimball, 1661 Pine Street # 837, San Francisco CA, 94109. We will watch Part I of the 1964 BBC mini series adapted from Ford Maddox Ford's novel, PARADE'S END. The film explores the world of the English ruling class as it descends into the chaos of the First World War. The hero is an officer from a wealthy family who finds himself torn between his unfaithful socialite wife and his mistress, a more modern woman, (played by a young Judi Dench). The drama revolves around one man's internal struggles during a time of brutal world conflict. RSVP to Sue at 415-447-5470 or suekimball@comcast.net. Parking is available if Sue is notified ahead of time.

Museum Dates: Private Docent Tours. Guests welcome! Please arrive 10 minutes early. Join us afterwards for coffee or lunch at the museum café or other local place. RSVP to Alison Boeckmann at 415-661-5849 (home), 415-317-2150 (cell) or alison_boeckmann@post.harvard.edu. Send check (made out to Alison Boeckmann) to Alison Boeckmann, 1536 Willard Street, SF 94117.

Sunday, June 23, 10 a.m. at the Legion of Honor. "Impressionists on the Water." Our private class will be led by Binta Ayofemi, who did similar classes at the SFMoma and the deYoung recently. We will need to obtain our own timed entry tickets. Alison can buy your ticket for you. Please give her your FAMSF membership number if you have one. Meet afterwards in the café at 11:30 a.m. Cost: $20 plus entry fee (free for FAMSF members and their guests).

(tentative) Sunday August 4, 10 am at the de Young. "Richard Diebenkorn: The Berkeley Years, 1953–1966".

On Friday, July 26th, join members of the Harvard Club of San Francisco for a special chamber music series event at Music@Menlo. The evening consists of a short 5:30pm concert, a very nice picnic hosted by RCSF and Music@Menlo board member, Kathy Henschel, followed by a 7:30 lecture. Limited to 40 people at $45 per person. Register and purchase tickets at <http://www.harvardclubsf.org/article.html?aid=555>

The Harvard Club of San Francisco is reaching out to form closer relationships with other Harvard & Radcliffe clubs in the Bay Area, and Kathy Henschel will be joining the HCSF board as our representative. We will be sharing information and invitations to events among the clubs, as well as links to the clubs' websites.
