

APRIL EVENTS 2018

RCSF ANNUAL MEETING

Saturday, April 21, at 11:30 a.m.

Potluck lunch at the home of Julie Cheever, 44 - 21st Avenue, San Francisco. All members and potential members are welcome! The meeting will follow the potluck lunch. We will elect officers and discuss club activities (including what you would like to see in activities); the club's new constitution and status as an official Harvard alumni club; outreach; and donations to organizations that support women at Harvard. RSVP to Julie at jcheever@igc.org or 415- 387-6843.

Culinary Adventures: San Francisco: Wednesday, April 11, at 11:30 a.m. at Seoul Garden, 1655 Post (at Buchanan) (22 Peace Plaza, 2nd floor). I had a wonderful Korean dinner a while ago in, of all places, Torrance (not odd if you know LA), but the Korean places I know of in SF seem to be casual barbecue spots. So, I finally asked my Korean exercise class friend where they eat; "Seoul Garden," she replied without hesitation. So let's go! The lunch menu includes, yes, BBQs (galbee, bulgogi, dhak goo yee), but also bibimbaps, sautees, soups, noodles and stews. 38 Geary buses, 22 Fillmore, the 2 and the 3. two-hour meters or the Japantown garage. RSVP to Pat Bourne at 415-474-0212 or patriciabourne@post.harvard.edu.

Book Group: Sunday, April 8, at 3 p.m. at the home of Consuelo Aceves, 440 Davis Court, #2009, San Francisco. The book is "The Left Hand of Darkness" by Ursula K. LeGuin. "'The Left Hand of Darkness' is science fiction for the thinking reader, and should be read attentively in order to properly savor the depth of inspiring and subtleties of plot and character. It is one of those pleasures that requires a little investment at the beginning, but pays back tenfold with the joy of new imagination..." (L. Blunt Jackson). "Embracing the aspects of psychology, society, and human emotion on an alien world... a landmark achievement in the annals of intellectual science fiction" (Amazon). RSVP to Consuelo at consuelo-aceves@post.harvard.edu or 415-225-9080. There will be no book group in May. The book for June will be "Women and Power: A Manifesto" by Mary Beard.

Film Group: Saturday, April 14, at 1 p.m. at the San Francisco Towers home of Ellie Zuckerman, 1661 Pine Street #511, San Francisco. We will finally conclude watching "The Forsyte Saga," a multipart series based on the work of John Galsworthy. The final chapters of this wonderful series now focus on the Forsytes of the next generation. While they are mindful of their parents, and love them, they are no longer locked into the stultifying behavioral norms of their elders, nor are they willing to continue the rifts and secrets of their parents. And is this not historically accurate, even to this day? RSVP to Ellie at 415-447-5695 (home) or 925-876-8261 (cell) or elz@post.harvard.edu. Parking can be arranged if Ellie is notified in advance.

Museum Dates: Guests welcome! Please arrive 10 minutes early. Join us afterwards for coffee or lunch at the museum café. RSVP to Alison Boeckmann at alison_boeckmann@post.harvard.edu or 415-589-7001 (home), 415-317-2150 (cell). Send check (made out to Alison Boeckmann) to Alison Boeckmann, 440 Davis Court, #1211, San Francisco 94111.

Sunday, April 22, at 9 a.m. at the de Young Museum: "Cult of the Machine." This large-scale survey explores connections between the past and the present and features more than 100 masterworks of American Precisionism by such modernists as Charles Sheeler, Georgia O'Keeffe, and Charles Demuth. The exhibition sheds light on the aesthetic and intellectual concerns of this important strand of early American modernism as well as the origins of its style, its relationship to photography, and how it reflected the economic and social changes wrought by industrialization and technology. Cost is $15 for members of FAMSF and guests, $40 for adults, $30 for seniors.

Sunday, June 17, at 10:30 a.m. at the SF Museum of Modern Art: "Rene Magritte: The Fifth Season." Details in the May newsletter. (Tentative) Sunday, June 22: backstage tour of the Opera House.

The Harvard Club of San Francisco will hold its Annual Membership Dinner on Thursday, April 26, at 6 p.m. at the St. Regis Hotel.
