

NOVEMBER EVENTS 2020

Culinary Adventures: Wednesday, November 11, at 11:30 a.m., Yes, continuing at our homes while eating our leftovers or our recently prepared delights. A lot will have just happened or will be still happening. The most affecting topics are the state of the election and the course of the pandemic. But there will be plenty of room on the table for almost anything else. Be thinking of things you'd like to talk about. RSVP to Pat Bourne at patriciabourne@post.harvard.edu or her cell 415-867-0410 . She'll send a Zoom link the day before the lunch to those who've RSVP'd. If sufficient interest, we may try a double-venue lunch. If you are thinking along these lines, please send destination ideas with details before our meeting date and Pat will send them out for discussion.

Book Group: Sunday, November 8, at 3 p.m. via Zoom. You will need a computer, ideally with a camera and microphone, but you can also phone in. RSVP to Alison Boeckmann at 415-589-7001 or alison_boeckmann@post.harvard.edu. She will send an email with instructions for joining the meeting. The book for November will be Tell Me a Riddle by Tillie Olsen. "Explores the deep pain and real promise of fundamental American experience in a style of incomparable verbal richness and beauty . . . (Julian Moynahan) Note: We are planning to discuss the book with this title, which contains a novella with the same title. If you find another collection containing the novella, please be sure it also includes the other three early stories, "I Stand Here Ironing," "Hey Sailor, What Ship?" and "O Yes." The book for December will be The Summer Book by Tove Jansson.

Film Group: There will be no meeting in November, due to complicated schedules, so our next meeting will be on Saturday, December 5 at 1:30 p.m. We will watch The Ambassador's Daughter, once again starring Olivia de Havilland. If you are interested in joining us, please send an email to Lucille Poskanzer at LBPoskanzer@icloud.com, and I will send you the link.

Writers' Workshop: Gloria Wu and Cynthia Travis invite members to join their Writers' Workshop on Saturday, November 14 at 3:00 p.m. We will meet via Zoom to share our current output and discuss one another's work. This workshop is a Harvard Club of San Francisco Shared Interest Group. To join, or for more information, please contact Gloria at gwu2550@gmail.com or Cynthia at ctravis@sonic.net.

Update on Radcliffe Alumnae Professorship: Two new Radcliffe Alumnae Professors have been named. You can read both the October 2020 update from the Radcliffe Institute and the history of the Professorship at www.radcliffeclubsf.org/radcliffe-alumnae-professorship--fellowship.htm.

Renew your membership, join the club or make donations to Harvard organizations supporting women at the club website at www.radcliffeclubsf.org. (Note recent changes to Dues and Contributions page and to Radcliffe College Alumnae Oral History Project page.) The "For Members" section of the website contains the updated Membership Directory, a Membership Update and Treasurer's Report. Please send changes in your directory information to kghenschel@gmail.com. The website also contains the minutes of the September 12 Annual Meeting, including Alice Abarbanel's report on the Radcliffe College Alumnae Oral History Project.
