

NOVEMBER EVENTS 2021
(revised 11/3/2021)

Culinary Adventures: Wednesday, Nov. 10, at 11:30 a.m. um.ma Korean Restaurant, 1220 9th Avenue (between Irving and Lincoln). Picking up where we left off in March of 2020!!! A smart, newly re-opened spot across the street from the new Tartine (and more). They have a nice outdoor deck which I think we could have to ourselves. It's on the N Judah on Irving St.; parking on Lincoln is often the answer, and there's hope in the Park. AND the Judy Chicago show is still on at the deYoung! RSVP to patriciabourne@post.harvard.edu or 415-867-0410.

Book Group: Sunday, Nov. 14, at 3:00 p.m. via Zoom. RSVP to Alison Boeckmann at alisonboeckmann@fastmail.com and she will send you the link to join the meeting.

The book for November will be The Pull of the Stars: A Novel by Emma Donoghue. "Remarkably prescient and beautifully realised, this historical novel from the author of the seminal Room centers on a trio of female medics at the height of the 1918 Spanish Flu pandemic." (Waterstones) "Donoghue has fashioned a tale of heroism that reads like a thriller, complete with gripping action sequences, mortal menaces and triumphs all the more exhilarating for being rare and hard-fought." (Washington Post).

The book for December will be Klara and the Sun by Kazu Ishiguro. "...an intriguing take on how artificial intelligence might play a role in our futures...a poignant meditation on love and loneliness." (The Associated Press). "One of the most affecting and profound novels Ishiguro has written...I'll...call Klara and the Sun a masterpiece that will make you think about life, mortality, the saving grace of love: in short, the all of it." (Maureen Corrigan, NPR).

RCSF Speakers Series: Saturday, November 13, at 12:45 p.m. via Zoom. Our first guest in this new series is Caroline Light, Harvard Faculty of Arts and Sciences, Senior Lecturer and Director of Undergraduate Studies in the program on Studies of Women, Gender and Sexuality, speaking on the topic of "Consuming the Other: Race, Gender and U.S. Consumer Culture." If you wish to attend, please go to radcliffeclubsf.org. On the left (red) menu, click on RCSF Speakers Series. This will bring up the link to register. You will receive an email with information to join the meeting. You will also receive a reminder email on November 12. The Zoom "doors" will open at 12:30 p.m. and our speaker will begin promptly at 12:45 p.m. There will be time for Q&A, and the session will end at 2:00 p.m.

Saturday, Feb. 26, 2022 at 12:30 p.m. via Zoom. Martha Schwartz, Professor in Practice of Landscape Architecture, Harvard Graduate School of Design. Topic TBD.

Museum Tour: Friday, Nov. 19, at 12:30 p.m. at the Legion of Honor: "Color into Line: Pastels." Guests welcome! Please arrive 10 minutes early, fully vaccinated, with masks. RSVP to alisonboeckmann@fastmail.com, 415-589-7001 (home) or 415-317-2150 (cell). The cost is $35 adults, $30 seniors, $10 members of the Fine Arts Museums. You can pay online at www.radcliffeclubsf.org or send a check to Alison at 440 Davis Court, Apt 1211, San Francisco 94111.

Film Group: Saturday, Nov. 20, at 1:30 p.m. via Zoom. Our film will be Force Majeure, released in 2014. This is a challenging and thought-provoking Swedish film about what seems to be a loving and ideal family on vacation in the French Alps. A sudden avalanche disrupts them in ways no one had expected. The scenery is gorgeous, the music beautiful, and the aftermath of the near disaster will get you thinking of family dynamics and the expectations men and women bring to a marriage. If you are interested in joining us, please send an email to Lucille Poskanzer at LBPoskanzer@icloud.com and I will send you the link.

Save the Date: New Year's Eve party at the home of a club member. Details in December Newsletter.
