APRIL EVENTS 2026

Culinary Adventures: Oakland: Wednesday, April 8, at 11:30 a.m. at Wahpepah's Kitchen at Fruitvale Transit Village (adjacent to Fruitvale BART). Native American food. From Mary H: "I had a wonderful meal at this place recently and it's definitely a culinary adventure. The restaurant was attractive with many tables and the area felt safe. My friends had the bison meatballs (came with roast potatoes, excellent), I had wild rice fritters. There were many appealing choices on the menu. What I'd go back for is the chia pudding (wow!). It's just a few steps from the Fruitvale BART station. We had a car and were able to park on the street. The website is Wahpepah's Kitchen. RSVP to Mary Henderson at mghender@pacbell.net (preferred) or 510-390-1132.

The selection for May is Justice: What's the Right Thing to Do? by Harvard professor Michael J. Sandel. "Justice is Sandel at his finest: no matter what your views are, his delightful style will draw you in, and he'll then force you to rethink your assumptions and challenge you to question accepted ways of thinking." (E. J. Dionne, syndicated columnist.)
