
RADCLIFFE CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO

MARCH EVENTS 2026

Book Group: Sunday, March 8, at 3 p.m. on Zoom. Janet Hankin will email the link to regular participants. Others who would like to join can contact her at jghankin@ips.net.

This month's book is Master Slave Husband Wife, An Epic Journey from Slavery to Freedom by Ilyon Woo, which won the 2024 Pulitzer Prize for Biography. It "hits all the marks of a masterpiece: unforgettable characters, stirring conflicts, breathtaking courage, and a pulsating plot wrapped around an unforgiveable sin" (Washington Independent Review of Books). "(A)n American love story—one that would challenge the nation's core precepts of life, liberty, and justice for all..." (Pulitzer Prize Committee).

Our April book, Marjan Kamali's third novel, The Lion Women of Tehran, "charts the friendship between two women, Homa and Ellie, who form a deep bond that transcends class, wealth, geography and betrayal" (Syma Mohammed, San Francisco Chronicle). Reserve at your library soon as this is a popular best seller.

Culinary Adventures: San Francisco: Wednesday, March 11, at 11:30 a.m. at a repeat favorite: Cholita Linda at the Ferry Building, Suite 44. It has Latin American tacos, grilled sandwiches and salads, plus indoor and outdoor seating with a waterfront view. RSVP to Mary Henderson at mghender@pacbell.net (preferred) or 510-390-1132.

Celebration of Life of Lucille Poskanzer: Saturday, March 14, at 1:30 p.m. at the Hillside Club, 2286 Cedar Street, Berkeley. Lucille, class of '55, who passed away in December, was a retired genetic counselor who recently led our Film Group and served on the Steering Committee. The story of her undergraduate years helped to inspire the founding of the Radcliffe College Alumnae Oral History Project. The celebration will also be live streamed beginning at 2:00 p.m. To view it, please click here and use the password "Lucille."

RCSF Speakers Series: Our next speaker will be Harvard Professor Michèle Lamont, a cultural sociologist who studies morality, group boundaries, and inequality. The date will be announced in the April newsletter.

Film Group: The group needs a leader, or leaders, who knows how to present films via Zoom and who would like to choose the monthly movies. If you are interested in helping with either or both of these roles, please contact Mary Claugus at maryclaugus@att.net or 415-637-2077.

You can renew your membership, join the club, donate to the Radcliffe College Alumnae Oral History Project, or give to Harvard organizations supporting women at the club website: www.radcliffeclubsf.org.
