

RADCLIFFE CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO

MAY EVENTS 2025

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE RADCLIFFE CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO: Saturday, May 10, at 10:30 a.m. via Zoom.

We will elect officers; hear updates on activities and projects including the Radcliffe College Alumnae Oral History Project; hear reports on membership and club finances; and decide on this year's club contributions. All RCSF members (current and recent) will receive the Zoom link and materials for the meeting by email on May 9th. Please register in advance to attend the Zoom meeting. Click HERE to register, or contact Kathy Henschel at kghenschel@gmail.com or 415-713-9979.

Film Group: Saturday, May 3, at 1:30 p.m. via Zoom. We will watch the final episodes of Belgravia, and let's hope that all of the various convoluted mysteries and relationships will be resolved. It was generally agreed that watching a series is not the best choice for once-a-month viewing, and in the future we will be watching complete films. If you would like to join us, please email Lucille Poskanzer at LBPoskanzer@icloud.com and she will send you the link.

Book group: Sunday, May 11, at 3 p.m. via Zoom. Janet Hankin will email the meeting link to regular participants. Others who would like to join, or have questions, can contact her at jghankin@ips.net.

The book for May is Pride and Prejudice, as we continue to Jane Austen's second published work, ". . . the most joyful and life-affirming of Jane Austen's novels . . ." (New York Times).

The book for June will be The Women by Kristen Hannah. "A dramatic, vividly detailed reconstruction of a little-known aspect of the Vietnam War" (Kirkus Reviews).

Culinary Adventures: Wednesday, May 14, at 11:30 a.m. at Angeline's Louisiana Kitchen, 2261 Shattuck Ave, Berkeley. From the website: "Angeline's brings the flavor and atmosphere of a New Orleans neighborhood restaurant to downtown Berkeley, with great music, libations and the classic dishes invented in the Big Easy's greatest kitchens." To take BART from San Francisco, take the red Richmond BART line to the Downtown Berkeley station. Angeline's is a few blocks south on Shattuck on the east side of the street. RSVP to Mary Henderson at mghender@pacbell.net or Alison Boeckmann at alisonboeckmann@fastmail.fm.

"Behind the Scenes" Tours of Grace Cathedral, in person on Thursday, May 15, at 11 a.m. or Tuesday, May 20, at 3:30 p.m. Join other RCSF members and Harvard Club of San Francisco members for one of these special tours. The cost is $31 per person, and guests are welcome. To participate, go to the Harvard Club events page at <https://harvardclubsf.org/events/> and scroll to your preferred date for full details, and to register and pay.

Speakers Series: Dr. Ann-Christine Duhaime, Professor of Neurosurgery at Harvard Medical School, joined us on April 19th and gave a fascinating talk on "Climate Change and Health" and what we can do. The Zoom recording is posted HERE (enter the password R=4*Dr&S) and also on the Speakers Series Recordings page of our website. Contact Kathy Henschel if you need the password to access this page.

Membership renewal: A letter inviting you to renew your membership, or join the club, through April 2026 was emailed in April. We hope you will renew or join! You can do so either by mail or on our website. Click HERE or go to the Membership Information page on our website.

Harvard Overseers election: All alumnae and alumni are eligible to vote for the university's Overseers and Harvard Alumni Association directors. Voting, by email or paper ballot, is open through May 20. RCSF members are urged to exercise their right to vote. For more information, see <https://elections.harvard.edu>.
