

SEPTEMBER EVENTS 2024

Membership: Many thanks to those who have recently joined the club or renewed their membership through April 2025. If you haven't, it's time! You can do so by visiting the club website at www.radcliffeclubsf.org/membership-information.html. Send any questions to Kathy Henschel at kghenschel@gmail.com or call her at 415-713-9979.

Book Group: Sunday, September 8, at 3 p.m., via Zoom. Janet Hankin will send an email to the book group with instructions for joining the meeting. Others who would like to join, or have questions, can contact her at jghankin@jps.net.

The book for September will be Rosalind Franklin: The Dark Lady of DNA by Brenda Maddox. "Lively, absorbing, and evenhanded ... What emerges is the complex portrait of a passionate, flawed, courageous woman" (Washington Post Book World).

The book for October will be James by Percival Everett. "Gripping, painful, funny, horrifying, this is multi-level entertainment, a consummate performance . . ." (The Guardian). NOTE: This is a very new book and much in demand; if you expect to get it from a library, you may need to get yourself on a waiting list as soon as possible!

Culinary Adventures, Bay Area: Thursday, September 19, at 11:30 a.m. Note new day, to accommodate busy September schedules, for this month only. Cholita Linda, 1 Ferry Building, Suite 44.

<http://cholitalinda.com>. Right across the street from the end of 1 CA bus line. Indoor and outdoor seating.

"We decided to bring our cravable Latin American street and comfort food over the bridge. Now located within the historic San Francisco Ferry Building, our food, music, colors, and tropical plants, in addition to a waterfront view, give our guests the experience of getting away."

RSVP to Mary Henderson at 510-390-1132 or mghender@pacbell.net, or to Alison Boeckmann at alisonboeckmann@fastmail.fm or 415-317-2150

Film Group: Saturday, September 28, at 1:30 p.m. on Zoom. The film will be The Last of the Mohicans, a 1992 film based on a novel by James Fenimore Cooper, starring Daniel Day-Lewis. This action-packed adventure takes place during the French and Indian War, from 1754 to 1763, when the natives are tasked with finding and protecting the daughters of a British Colonel. The film is a good way to remember and reflect on the book you probably read many years ago. Have your perceptions of Native Americans changed? If you are interested in joining us, please send an email to Lucille Poskanzer at LBPoskanzer@icloud.com and she will send you the link.

Harvard Graduate School of Education: Engagement Session, Thursday, October 15, 7-9 p.m. in San Francisco - location TBD. HGES invites prospective graduate students and alumnae/i of HGES to a "meet & greet" and information session. Attendees can register at https://apply.gse.harvard.edu/register/sanfran_24. If you know of any prospective HGES students, please help spread the word.

Radcliffe College Alumnae Oral History Project: This year's Harvard Alumni Day in Cambridge featured a program on the Oral History Project along with a five-year anniversary celebration of the project. Project Director Alice Abarbanel and Assistant Project Director Suzu Underwood recounted some memorable moments from interviews with alumnae from the classes of the 1940s to the 1970s. You can share in the fun at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=isMG7ZcSkow>.
